

Smart Choice!

Q: What do you do with the money I give you?

Skye, Grade 5, Green Meadow Elementary School

A: Hi Skye,
After you make a deposit we put your money in the bank vault. When the bank gets too much money, an armored truck comes and picks some of it up. They are in charge of delivering it safely to the Federal Reserve Bank. There are twelve Federal Reserve Banks across the country that serve as the banks for banks. In our area, the money goes to the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.
